For ACSM Certified Professionals

Renew Your Certification

Renewing Your ACSM Certification

Your ACSM Certification is valid for three years. In order to renew your certification at the end of three years, you will need to meet the following minimum requirements:

1. Accumulate the required number of Continuing Education Credits (CECs), Continuing Medical Education (CMEs), Continuing Education Units (CEUs) and/or the equivalent (see CEC requirements for your certification below)
2. Maintain current CPR Certification
3. Pay the required recertification fee
4. Or, you have the option to repeat the certification exam as long as you meet the current eligibility requirements (current exam prices apply)

How to Renew Your Certification

Click here to complete the online recertification renewal form.

Purpose of Recertification

The purpose of ACSM recertification is to ensure that ACSM Certified Professionals enhance skills and knowledge above and beyond minimum competence. Periodic recertification occurs through the documentation of (and confirmation, when audited) of required continuing educational activities within
